Reduces Depression

Social Connection

Lowers risk of disease

Longevity

Less stress

Helps cognition

“The people that bring those meals, they are just wonderful! When they ask me how I am doing, it makes my whole day, and they have smiles. It means so much. I know God sends these people to me. Thank you!” – Nutrition participant

“I feel that I receive much more from the residents than the time that I give. It is an honor to be their advocate.”
– Ombudsman volunteer

“I like knowing I’m serving the community. I love delivering meals to my people and visiting with them. I think sometimes we’re the only person they see that day. It brings me great joy.” – Nutrition volunteer
